Pam Scheppele Awarded Leadership Position of National Financial Organization

Presque Isle and Bangor, ME – The Presque Isle and Bangor based financial services firm of Thompson-Hamel, LLC is pleased to announce Pam Scheppele has been appointed Treasurer of the Women in Insurance and Financial Services (WIFS), at their annual conference in Austin, Texas.

WIFS was founded in 1936 and is an association of financial services professionals working together to attract, develop and advance women. The leadership team champions career opportunities, provides professional development, and represents women's interests to the profession. Their vision is to be the global change leader inspiring women to achieve their dreams. Members benefit from monthly educational webinars on a variety of business and professional development topics, a mentorship program, and peer connection.

“I’m excited to be a part of a growing organization which strives to inspire women to achieve their dreams,” stated Pam Scheppele. Scheppele, who holds many industry certifications including the Retirement Income Certified Professional (RICP), has over 30 years of experience providing retirement planning advice. In this new role, she represents women from all over the Country as national board member for WIFS. Bryan Thompson, CEO of Thompson-Hamel, LLC added, “It is a demonstration of her commitment to clients, to see her recognized as an industry leader, where she can share and mentor young woman starting in this career.” Scheppele will serve on the leadership team for two years.

Thompson-Hamel, LLC provides estate planning, insurance, investment and payroll processing services to its clients throughout Maine and beyond. Pam Scheppele and Bryan Thompson can be reached in Presque Isle by calling (207) 764-3302, or in Bangor by calling (207) 942-6741.
